Message From CEO

Many of the most influential business leaders are involved in making a remarkable difference in the world of rapid technological growth and constant development of business thought and prototypes. We strive to deliver diversified integrated solutions that design possibilities, which promote the development of new perspectives on protecting, preserving, and beautifying residential, commercial, industrial, and institutional spaces.

We are QCP a modernist vanguard with an experimental spirit and an aesthetic pursuit, who aspire to provide clients with landscape-related products, outstanding specialty construction products, pavement coatings and marking in addition to sports flooring coatings , which in their turn give the ultimate living experience to today's modern generation.

Established in the year 2015 at the hands of a highly experienced management team, proficient goal setters, and plan execution recruits, QCP has set the objective to deliver quality by cooperating and coordinating within a professional working space to provide customers with outsourcing solutions, help grow their businesses, and nurture their expertise towards building visually pleasing and environmentally friendly spaces.

We strive to build a reputation of excellence in outsourcing and selling landscape-related products, specialty construction products, pavement coatings and marking, sports flooring coatings. We employ our sourcing techniques, relationships with top-of-the-line suppliers, years of experience in the domain, and our taste for beauty to provide our customers with outstanding value products.

We thrive to transform people's work and living spaces, providing them with comfort and a healthy atmosphere in which they can carry out their quotidian activities. We rely on our expertise and high-quality products to enhance our customer's daily performances. As a team, we promise to aid you throughout your journey and help you ameliorate the world's living standards to a new calibre of excellence, i.e., safe, green, and healthy.

On behalf of our professional family, it gives me great pleasure to introduce to you QCP.

About Us

“Providing Solutions Expanding Frontiers” It is more than just a tagline; it determines our principal activity and what we represent.

As prestigious partners of world-leading American and European manufacturers of aesthetic building products, and of top-notch tree growers and ornamental plants' nurseries located in parts of Asia and Europe, QCP provides solutions ensuring flawless implementation of our client's projects. Our company is comprised of specialists focused on the supply of diversified products and integrated solutions dedicated to developing communities in the MENA region.

We, the QCP team, join efforts into one melting pot to protect, preserve, and beautify spaces in which the animate and inanimate dwell. We help contractors build aesthetically pleasing and safe environments; we help modernize residential, commercial, industrial, and institutional spaces and increase the quality of living standards.

The Team

Our team of experts, with over 15 years of experience in the domain, thrives on providing excellent eco-friendly products that fulfil our clients' unmet needs. We are providers of quality in all of our product categories such as landscape-related products, specialty construction products, pavement coatings and marking, sports flooring coatings.
